

Hood River Stewardship Collaborative

2:00-5:00pm - May 18, 2016

Mid-Columbia Agricultural Research Station – Main Meeting Room
3007 Experiment Station Drive, Hood River, Oregon 97031

---

MEETING AGENDA

Purpose: To discuss organizational structure and process needs to begin formulating operating principles that will help guide the Stew Crew as they work collaboratively to explore issues and develop recommendations.

2:00 Welcome, Get Settled and Introductions

2:10 April 20th Meeting Follow-up & Updates

- Additional edits/approval of 4/20 meeting summary
- Review and approve discussion protocols
- Stew Crew website development update

2:25 Discussion on Stew Crew Structure and Process - Begin discussion around the Stew Crew's needs and preferences for:

- Stew Crew's Purpose and Objectives
  - Clarify who is the Stew Crew and what do we do?
- Participation
  - Who should participate? And what are their roles?
  - Is there a need to recruit participation from other groups?
- Representation
  - How should we address multiple voices for the same organization/agency or a singular voice acting as a spokesperson for many?
  - Who weighs in on decisions around recommendations?
- Decision Making
  - How does the Stew Crew make decisions?
  - How do we ensure that all interests are represented?
  - What happens when the group cannot coalesce around a decision?

3:00 Break – light snacks will be provided

3:15 Continue Structure and Process discussion

4:45 – Next Steps & Action Items

- Review action items
- Agenda topics for next meeting – June 15th

5:00 Adjourn

Note: Times are provided as a general guideline and will be adjusted as necessary to support a productive conversation.